

MAJESTIC TAKES NOTABLES ABROAD

Senator Edge and Bride Will Be in Southern France
Two Months.

DUELS ON 'HONEYMOON'

Claus Spreckels and Dr. A. E.
Austin Among Passengers for Europe.

The White Star liner Majestic sailed yesterday for Cherbourg and Southampton with 1,178 passengers who will spend the holidays abroad, and carrying 10,000 sacks of Christmas mail for England and the Continent.

Many friends of Senator Walter E. Edge of New Jersey and his bride, who was Miss Camilla Loyal Ashe Sewall of Bath, Me., were at the pier to see the couple off. They will spend two months in the south of France.

Also on a honeymoon trip was Charles H. Duell, son of the late Judge Charles Holland Duell, of the United States Court of Appeals, and treasurer of the Republican State Committee. He has been married a year, but had no leisure for travel. Mr. Duell said that Al Smith was successful at the polls because he was personally a progressive.

"It is therefore my belief," said Mr. Duell, "that the Legislature should live his legislative program all the assistance possible as long as it is progressive."

On his way to Vienna to study health conditions was Dr. A. E. Austin, Health Commissioner of Connecticut, who was accompanied by his wife and her daughter, Miss Clare Booth, who two years ago was voted at Monte Carlo the most beautiful young woman on the Riviera.

Also on board were Claus Spreckels, chairman of the board of the Federal Sugar Refining Company, who will rest at his villa on the Riviera at St. Jean; and John McCormack, Irish tenor, who will be abroad a year.

$19,000 FURS AND CLOTH STOLEN IN SAME STREET

Two Business Places Robbed in West 31st Street.

Two robberies in which approximately $19,000 worth of furs and dress goods were stolen within two blocks of each other in West Thirty-first street were reported to the police yesterday.

The shop of Samuel Braunstein, fur actioneer, at 15 West Thirty-first street, was broken into Friday night or Saturday morning and $10,000 worth of furs removed.

The other robbery was at the Levine Dress Company, 154 West Thirty-first street, where about $9,000 in dresses and dress materials were taken.

SANITARY INSPECTORS CLOSE OLD MANSION

Find Ten Men Living in One Room of House.

One of the former show places of Yonkers, an old mansion at 232 Warburton avenue, owned for many years by the late Dr. James T. Gibson, was raided yesterday morning and closed as a cheap lodging house by a squad of sanitary inspectors and police. Fourteen Portuguese laborers found sleeping in the house were routed into the street. The sanitary inspectors found that forty men were occupying the fourteen rooms in the house, which was managed by Alfred Dechena. In one room ten men were living. The house was found in filthy condition and there was no heat, despite two furnaces in the basement. No arrests were made, but a detail of police was stationed at the house to enforce the closing order.

PANAMA LINER BRINGS 80 CABIN PASSENGERS

Gold, Silver, Rare Woods and Drugs in Cargo.

The steamship Panama of the Panama Railroad, and Steamship Line docked yesterday, bringing eighty first class passengers. In her cargo were gold and platinum, consigned to the Pacific Metals Corporation, valued at $200,000.

Among the passengers was Miss Louise Hoar, stepdaughter of Speaker F. H. Gillett of the House of Representatives, who was accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Kussey, a daughter of John H. Russell, American High Commissioner to Haiti. Other passengers were Gustave R. de Yeaza, Consul from Ecuador; Masters Stevens, secretary to Governor-General J. J. Morrow of the Canal Zone, and Miss Anna Scherer, secretary to Representative William R. Wood of Indiana.

The Panama brought a general cargo, among which were 2,500 bags of sugar from Peru, 100 logs of cocobolo wood, a quantity of coca leaves to be made into cocaine, 5,740 bags of coffee and 6,574 bars of copper.

JUDGE'S SUGGESTION COMPROMISES SUITS

Wasservogel Averts Trial of Long Cases.

A suggestion from Justice Wasservogel in Supreme Court led to the settlement yesterday of two suits which might have dragged through more than three weeks.

An action brought by Woodhouse, Stoll & Co., silk commission merchants, 260 Fourth avenue, against Paul Gerli, 422 Fourth avenue, involving business running into several hundred thousand dollars was settled by a compromise suggested by Justice Wasservogel after an all day session with the counsel in his chambers. The amount of the settlement, from which no appeal will be taken, was not divulged. Max D. Steuer represented the plaintiff and I. Gainsburg was attorney for Mr. Gerli.

Justice Wasservogel followed this with a compromise in a suit for $25,000 brought by Eugene Pauli, a salesman, against Walworth Brothers, Inc., wool manufacturers, of 212 Fifth avenue.

Daily Calendar

THE WEATHER.

For Eastern New York—Snow or rain to-day and to-night; to-morrow cloudy and colder; increasing easterly winds shifting to west by to-morrow.

For New Jersey—Rain on the coast and rain or snow in the interior to-day; to-morrow clearing and colder; increasing easterly winds shifting to northwest by to-morrow.

For Northern New England—Increasing cloudiness followed by snow this afternoon or to-night and probably to-morrow; colder to-morrow; moderate to fresh shifting winds.

For Southern New England—Snow or rain to-day and to-night; to-morrow cloudy and colder; increasing easterly winds, shifting to west by to-morrow.

For Western New York—Snow to-day and probably to-morrow; colder to-morrow; moderate to fresh shifting winds.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Pressure was low and falling to-night from the lower Ohio Valley southward to the Rio Grande, with the lowest barometer reading 29.84 inches at Fort Worth, Tex., while high pressure prevailed over practically all other regions. There have been rains within the last twenty-four hours in the Ohio Valley, Tennessee, the East Gulf and South Atlantic States, and local snows in portions of the lake region. Much colder weather has again overspread the entire Northwest, many stations reporting more than 10 degrees below zero and several 20 degrees below zero at 8 o'clock to-night.

The Southwestern disturbance will move northward during the next two days, attended by snow or rain in middle and northern, and rain in southern sections east of the Mississippi River to-morrow. It will be followed by generally fair and much colder weather Monday, except that local snows are probable in northern New England and the lower lake region.

Observations at United States Weather Bureau stations, taken at 8 P. M. yesterday, seventy-fifth meridian time:
